STOCKS.

The stock market to-day was active and strong during the greater part. After a slight decline at the opening prices began to advance and continued to rise up to the last hour of business, when weakness set in and there was a fractional reaction from the highest point. This, however, was almost entirely recovered in final dealings, and prices closed generally 4 to 2½ per cent higher than yesterday, led by Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, Missouri Pacific, Lake Shore, Northern Pacific and Western Union.

The following were the closing bids:
